SAFETY TIPS - Working Safely in Trenches

Trench collapses and cave-ins are a serious threat to workers, but they can be prevented. Prepare / Use Protective Systems / Inspect for Hazards.

The following OSHA Alert and Quick Cards in English and Spanish provide standards and preventive measures, reducing work exposure to cave-ins and hazards.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Thank you to each member, who when nominated, agreed to run for the board with a willingness to serve on behalf of the membership!

Steering a Path to Growth During an Uncertain Economy - Live Webinar

Monday, October 19 | 2pm ET

Duration: 1 hour

Can't make the live date? Register and we'll send you a link to the recording.

The construction industry has experienced varying degrees of impacts as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic and the ensuing economic uncertainty. Leaders of Architecture, Engineering and Construction (AEC) firms are faced with an array of acute, short-term challenges while also having to address long-term business objectives. While many contractors may currently have a good backlog of projects, as that work starts to burn off, competition will increase and will put pressure on prices and margins.

In this webinar, experts will discuss:

- The current state of business development in the industry
- Proactive steps that can be implemented by AEC firms immediately to encourage growth
