

THE WEST TEXAS CHAPTER
SERVING GREATER WEST TEXAS SINCE 1952

TOP REASONS TO JOIN WEST TEXAS AGC

1. Project & Bidding information

The West Texas AGC Newsletter and Project List sent by email or accessed online each Thursday provides complete information on projects available to bid, i.e. scope of work, bid dates and time, A & E or CM to contact, bidders list, bid tabulations and contract awards. The Update issued the other 4 weekdays, provide notices of new projects and related information i.e. addenda and bid date changes.

2. Internet Plan Room and Physical Plan Room Services

Our internet plan room service provides accurate and prompt information on projects throughout the chapter territory and beyond for building, industrial, roadway, utility, maintenance and supply projects. Available 24/7 with internet access. This on-line access to projects, plans, specifications and bidder information is a benefit of your West Texas AGC membership at no additional subscription fee.

WTAGC has 3 physical plan room offices available to provide reprographic services, review projects by hard copy or on-line through computer access. Plan rooms are equipped with a member use computer, estimating desks, copiers, wide and standard office supplies. Plans may be reserved for overnight or for week-end check-out.

3. Company Safety and Fleet Policy Manuals

Customized Safety Program Manuals and Drive Safe Program and Policy Manuals are provided with your company name. Available on CD for further customizing and to fit your company needs or printed and placed in a binder per companies request.

4. Legislative Resources

Membership with the chapter includes membership to the State and National AGC organizations resulting in a direct link and access to the important construction issues happening at the State Capital and in Washington D. C. AGC Lobbyists look out for the interests of the construction industry, keeping you abreast of the issues, giving you a voice and opportunity to be involved. An Advocacy tab on the chapter website relaying issues and voter information allowing you to be the impact our industry needs for Advocacy.

5. Membership Discounts

There are numerous dividends and saving programs for our members through Chapter partnerships or AGC of America. These include workers comp dividends, cell phone discounts, rebates on new vehicles, shipping discounts, office supply discounts and many more that all add up for your ROI. Find out how to save by a visit to wtagc.org.

6. Education & Training

Webinars and seminars are posted in the newsletter to notify our members of the leading edge news for the industry and professional development. Safety Training online or special classes may be organized to assist our members. Chapter meetings are rotated to the various cities quarterly to allow networking and training opportunities.

7. Membership Directory

AGC is recognized as the Association of skilled and quality contractors. The chapter is contacted for contractor information and direction on projects allowing us to refer them to our membership directories. Members are listed in a printed directory, online directory and a online Buyers Guide. Each of these are free to members with additional advertising opportunities for showcasing your company.

8. Safety

Safety Tips are a weekly feature in our Newsletter using Tool Box Talk or similar Safety training which can be used for your weekly safety meetings. Safety classes can be organized and scheduled for your company to fit your needs and times.

9. Staff Resources

Whether it is a lien form, OSHA forms, OSHA Posters, a new project you are searching for, posting a job notice, or something else that is before you, please contact us. We are here to assist you with the needs that arise in the industry.
